noun

1. an act of traveling from one place to another.

"she went on a long journey"

synonyms: trip, expedition, excursion, tour, trek, voyage, junket, cruise, ride, drive, jaunt, road trip.

Webster's defines the "journey" as an act of "traveling from one place to another." I would like to think of this journey as "The Journey" – joining others in the process of growth, transparency, vulnerability, and accountability as we grow in Christ and step into the identity God has for us.

This Journey is not a social group.

It is not a support group.

This tribe has been created for people who intentionally want to be in peace and grow in wisdom while learning to lean into Jesus as we traverse the difficulties of this mountain called life. We are our best when we turn our secrets into tools, and this is the place to do that.

We are on a journey to actively live in the identity that God has created us for. In the walking through and walking out of chaos, we intend to turn around and lend a hand to someone heading into the same cave we just came out of. We are intentional about passing on the keys of wisdom and knowledge to the friend beside us and journeying individually and together through the cross of Christ into our healing.

Jesus didn't walk alone, and I don't think we should either. But unfortunately, it is difficult to find a tribe that are real and transparent. This group is determined to excavate the ditches of our hearts, our generations, and our relationships to be the best example of a child of the King that we can possibly be, all the while learning when/how to battle, and when being still is our best weapon. We don't know everything, but collectively we are our best because we are praying, weeping, and walking together. Our ultimate goal is to be our best self and represent who Jesus is and what He is capable of doing in our modern day.

God has a plan to turn our messes into messages. And we want to help with that process.

I believe God has led us all to this point of convergence in our lives for this purpose of working together on the next part of The Journey for the sake of others.

So ... if you are still interested, read on ...

We interact daily on many levels. Some live close and some are “afar.” Some of us have the privilege of meeting over coffee and lunch. But we all have the privilege of a tribe meeting once a month face to face via Zoom on the first Sunday of each month at minimum. Other months may include other meetings, events, seminars, travel, retreats, speaking engagements, etc. for teaching, impartations, training, etc. Our long-distancers join us daily in text and other social media platforms but always via Zoom once a month.

We record the monthly teachings/trainings for conflicting schedules for our meetings. These recordings are available and sent out after every monthly meeting. Meetings are interactive. We are all participating in vulnerability and transparency, living life out in real time. We all assist and help each other to walk out this challenge called life.

The monthly fee for The Journey is $125 and is due by the 1st of the month. If you want to do more, you can follow the lead of others who allow us to be the “church,” by choosing to tithe to Transformations, Inc. Either way, an invoice will be provided each month (pay by PayPal or check). These fees are used to support myself and all aspects of this ministry. Considering the value of this group, I see this as being a contribution into healing you and the generations. I’ve learned after 25 years of ministry that we don’t honor what we don’t value. Many have said this process is priceless. I challenge you to try it out for a month and judge for yourself.

One of the best parts of this ministry is the option of participating in individual monthly prayer ministry sessions with my leadership teams via Zoom, FaceTime, or FB Messenger video, or whatever venue seems most appropriate for deep healing. I will prayerfully pair you up with a member of my leadership team who I feel can personally minister to whatever you are wrestling with. Together, myself and my team have over 85 years of healing ministry experience. You will receive ministry each month, and if you so choose, you are welcome to throw your hat in the ring to become a leader as well. Or perhaps you would like to learn how to minister to others through the ministering of the Holy Spirit. We all walk together at a pace that syncs us all with the timing of the Holy Spirit. It's not easy, but it's unmatched if you are interested in standing in for your family, community, and generations for the sake of healing.

We aren't pushy except when it comes to your comfort zone. We want to see you fully stepping into the identity that Holy Spirit reveals, Christ won for you, and God set into motion when He created the foundations of the earth. All we need is a yes and a desire to do the same as you grow in relationships with all of us. We need you as much as you need us!

We all take an active interest in coming alongside you to pursue what God has called you to do and who He has called you to be. I and my leaders will pour into you as much as God allows in whatever time you are with us. Much like elders, we pray for you and strategize as to how we can contribute wisdom, peace, and grace into your life.

We all share books, trainings, prophetic, dreams, etc. that will help each of us grow. I will introduce you to many relevant topics that I feel help us to grow in our identity and wisdom. This will be the foundation of topics that I will teach on. These offerings are not mandatory for you to read, but certainly important if you plan to build an arsenal of healing resources, etc.

I, and my leadership team, and this tribe will be here for you as issues come up in your life. Our overall goal is to come alongside you, as you walk through and grow in your identity and healing, all the while giving you tools to walk out whatever season arises.

This tribe will help you recognize gifts, talents, callings, and shortcomings so you can recognize how God wants to heal and how He desires to use you.

In exchange, your responsibility to this group is to speak truthfully and candidly about your heart in identifying barriers that are recognized that may prevent you from becoming fully who God created you to be.

You must be willing and committed to give and receive the truth regarding unhealthy fruit that is identified in your life by this tribe.

We offer you a corporate “Body of believers” who are invested in your heart and in this The Journey to grow with you in all things healing.

We will come alongside you to assist you in your spiritual growth. Feel free to text, call, or email anyone on this team if you need anything. We provide daily means of correspondence for prayer, etc. If the prayer chain is not enough, you have liberty to reach out to any one of us in this tribe (within reason, honoring their time and lifestyle of work, etc.).

Please note, we are not licensed counselors, nor will we be available as a life line. We are not an emergency unit, but instead we will help you as God leads and will certainly be there for you during an upheaval.

I need to repeat, we are not a support group. We have protocol that we follow to come alongside you, but we will not take the place of Jesus as HE is your counselor. We will, however, be a constant source of help, advice, prayer, and testimony for you and will carry you in intercession. We will not do the work for you. And if we see repetitive fruit season after season, we will bring it to your attention. Much can be learned by learning to listen.

We will also come alongside you and assist you in developing your voice, whether it be in a blog, a book, devotional, or whatever. We all have a testimony, and we want to assist you in better developing your voice in whatever capacity you feel called. Janet has assisted on over 40 books (to date and growing) and too many blogs, etc. to even mention. Her desire is to contribute to our ministry by assisting you in your next project.

Transformations, Inc. offers ongoing classes, seminars, and retreats outside of the Journey tribe, and also has a desire to come alongside you, to help you develop your own voice and platform for classes you are interested in teaching in the future. Prior to covid, we have been active each week in jail ministry, Starbucks prayer gatherings, and other random pop-up meetings. Ideally, we will resume these meetings in the future as God leads.

We also offer Hebrew, Greek, grief classes, and topical Bible studies as schedules allow. These classes are newly developing each month and readily available on an ongoing seasonal basis! Who knows, someday maybe you will be teaching classes like these. (See Janet for more details.)

These are just a few of the things we have going and growing but always open to more as the Lord leads. More than anything else, it's a great tribe with a strong foundation in healing and the Word, seeking to live a lifestyle of Peace and Rest, all the while discovering the fullness of our identity in Christ, individually and corporately. We feel we are called to walk out this adventure called life with others who are like-minded. We have learned that we could no longer imagine doing life alone.

These are just a few of the offerings that you will be able to access if you decide to join The Journey. We are constantly adding new benefits as each tribe member grows and steps into ministry in a stronger capacity. We want the same for you, and we would love to have you join us in this Journey!

Does this resonate with you? If so ...

We would love for you to share what you expect, what your goals and aspirations are for our time together in this Journey?

We also want you to write down your personal vision and how we can come alongside you to help make that happen?

We also want to hear what you are interested in learning about while participating in this Journey?

I, _____, acknowledge the vision of Journey and agree to follow as is expected. I also recognize that at any time the Journey advisory team recognizes that my lifestyle or behavior is not conducive to this vision, I may be asked to remove myself from the Journey privilege. I will do so honorably and respectfully, and recognize that any/all info or testimonies shared or discussed during my Journey experience MUST be kept confidential.
